Correspondence

Mr. Dan Hook took in the excursion Sunday. Mr. Johnson was here from Vanceburg Friday. Mr. J. T. Darnell of Trinity is night operator here. Miss Minnie Wolf was shopping in Maysville Saturday. Mr. W. H. Tully of Lewis county was here Saturday. Mr. Joe Owens was down from Tollesboro Saturday. Mrs. James F. Hook visited relatives in Lewis county Sunday. Mr. John Soyster made a business trip to Maysville Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Goodwin visited their parents in Maysville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Soyster are visiting friends at Ripley and Higginsport. Mr. J. T. Murphy attended his Lodge meeting at Ashland Saturday night. Miss Dora Hise returned to Portsmouth Friday, after a pleasant visit here. Mr. Ed. Bryant was up from Maysville shaking hands with his many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Day and little daughter, Allene, of near Orangeburg, visited relatives here Sunday. Mr. Leslie Rigdon returned to his work in the Queen City Sunday on board the good steamer H. M. Stanley. Mr. B. F. Anno was here Sunday en route to his home at Rectorville, after a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Wilson, at Manchester. Mr. Robert Hook, the Inspector for the Pennsylvania Railroad, now located at Saltlick, visited his family here from Friday till Sunday. Miss Louise Tully visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday en route to her home at Cottageville, after a delightful visit with relatives and friends at Cincinnati, Manchester and other points in Ohio.

FOXPORT.

Hot, hotter, hottest; and still hotter. Mrs. Etta Bartlett continues very poorly. Miss Cora Lightner is real poorly with lung fever. Mrs. Wesley Porter is spending the week with her son at Mt. Carmel. Mr. Turner Mineer's and Luther Davis's children have the whooping-cough. Oscar Reynolds and Otis Lightner have gone to Versailles to seek employment. Mrs. Lizzie Griffith of Mt. Sterling is visiting her sister, Mrs. Belle DeAtley. Mr. Henry Sulac, an aged veteran of the Civil War, is very ill with heart trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall of Lexington were the guests of Henry Lightner this week. Miss Maggie Poynter has returned from a four weeks visit to relatives at Versailles. Miss Mary Jones has gone back to Cincinnati, after spending the winter with her parents here. There have been several tobacco buyers here the past week but we have heard of no one selling yet. Hiram Humphries of Mt. Sterling is here preparing to paint his brother George's residence in town. A Mr. Whalen and family passed through here one day this week moving from Maysville to over near Muses's Mills. Some few evenings ago during a wind storm "Aunt" Sallie Lightner's barn was blown down, no great damage being done. A cow was in the barn at the time but little Miss Clara Lightner ran in and drove it out, both escaping unharmed. Also the same afternoon Mr. Will Fearin's woodshed was blown down and a new buggy demolished.

Miss Maggie Carpenter has returned home from an extended visit to relatives at Trinity. Mrs. Charlie Ryan and little son have returned to their home in Ladlow, after a two weeks visit to relatives here. L. E. Bobbitt is now working for a R. F. D. from this place to Petersburg via Rockcamp, Noah, Mt. Zion, and down Bucklick to Burtonville and Epworth, and thence down the pike to M. M. Walker's, up that pike to Foxport and Carmel pike and on back to Foxport. The route will be a great help to this part of the country.
